Coastal BREEZE news a Fresh Perspective!

Coastal Breeze News is seeking an experienced writer to cover investigative reporting, local government and business news in this area.

The ideal candidate is a curious, community-minded journalist with strong reporting and interviewing skills, the ability to ask tough questions and a commitment to fair, accurate and balanced coverage. This position will focus on in-depth stories that matter to our readers, including city and county government, development, public policy, business trends and community issues.

Candidates should be comfortable working independently, developing sources, meeting deadlines and producing compelling stories for both print and digital platforms. Newspaper experience preferred.

This is an opportunity to join a respected community newspaper dedicated to impactful local journalism and trusted reporting.
