

For the Week of January 19, 2026

Welcome Officer Caleb Nye!

Last week we welcomed Officer Caleb Nye to the Colchester Police Department. Officer Nye was sworn in by Police Chief Peter Hull at a ceremony surrounded by his family and new colleagues.

Officer Nye grew up in Hinesburg and has a degree in Criminal Justice from Endicott College. Prior to starting his training with CPD, Officer Nye will attend the Vermont Police Academy to complete basic Training.

Welcome to the team, Officer Nye!

Colchester Vermont Historical Society Winter 2026

Upcoming Events:

- Board of Directors work meeting
January 24 (Saturday), 11 a.m.
Historical Society Parsonage
828 Main Street, Historic Village Green

Our Board of Directors will discuss issues at hand for the Colchester Historical Society, as well as upcoming plans. Interested members are welcome to attend.

- Vermont Schoolhouse Project
February 7 (Saturday), 10 a.m. at the Parsonage
828 Main Street, Colchester (back door entrance)

Original Champlain School, circa 1923

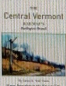

For 19 years, our presenter Charlie Farrell has been collecting photographs and information to create a historical inventory of schools that have served Vermont students. He'll provide an interesting emphasis on Colchester schools.

- History of the Platt House
March 14 (Saturday), 1 p.m.
828 Main Street, Colchester (back door entrance)

Former owners Clinton and Carol Reichard will share the history about this elegant and formal two-story dwelling, built in 1836. It was once the manor house for an extensive farm. Reputedly, the house was built by John Munson and was occupied by various members of the Platt family for more than 50 years until 1869. Come to learn more.

- Central Vermont Railway's Burlington Branch, including Winooski/Colchester material, 1850-2025
Please stay tuned for April date, time and location.

Rail enthusiast James R. "Jim" Jones will present wonderful anecdotes and photographs about New England Central's woodchip hauling, water-front interchange partner with Vermont Railway, "All aboard" for Essex Junction, Colchester's Fort Ethan Allen, Winooski, and beyond. His books will be available at a special rate for those who attend.

- Vermont Genealogy Library
May 11 (Monday), 7 p.m.
828 Main Street, Historic Village Green (back door entrance)

Presenter Suzanne Blanchard will help us explore the often-overlooked contributions of Canadian families to the American Cause and the settlement of our region.

- Barbecue and Annual Meeting
June 8 (Monday), 6 p.m.
Historical Society Parsonage on the Village Green
828 Main Street, Colchester

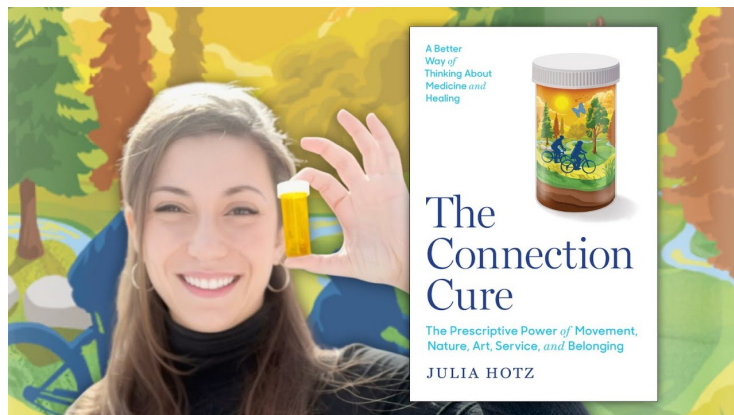

Members and special guests are invited to this fun and informational event. Please bring a dish to share. Hot dogs, burgers, and beverages will be provided. We'll be outdoors, weather permitting.

Book Discussion with Award-Winning Author and Journalist Julia Hotz

The Burnham Memorial Library will host an online talk with Julia Hotz to discuss her latest work: The Connection Cure. This novel combines diligent science reporting, moving patient success stories, and surprising self-discovery to help us discover the lasting and life-changing power of social prescribing.

The book talk will be held on Tuesday, January 20 at 2:00 PM.

A Message from VTrans: Exit 16 Construction Update

TRAFFIC IMPACT AND DURATION: From Tuesday, January 20, through Friday, January 23, between 7 AM and 3 PM, lane closures and lane shifts will be in effect on Lower Mountain

View Drive and Upper Mountain View Drive near their intersection with U.S. Routes 2/7 (U.S. 2/7). Later in the week, there is potential for a lane closure and shift on the east side of U.S. 2/7 near Starbucks, just south of Lower Mountain View Drive.

Independent utility companies will periodically be on-site conducting utility work along U.S. 2/7 between the Winooski town line and Sunderland Woods Road under lane closures.

Visit the project website for more information:
