

Time between purchase of a gun and its use in a crime has decreased

Most gun-related crimes occur three or more years after a gun is obtained. But law enforcement report that the number of crimes involving guns obtained less than three years before the incident has increased at a higher rate between 2012 and 2018.

