

Will MU take sexual assault reports seriously? Female, TGQN students more likely to doubt it.

Although two-thirds of students believe that it is “very” or “extremely likely” that university officials act upon reports of sexual harassment, only a slight majority of women and just over one-third of people in the TGQN community think so, too.

Overall

65.9%

Undergraduate women

56.1%

Graduate/professional women

65.0%

Undergraduate men

74.5%

Graduate/professional men

79.1%

TGQN

37.2%

Note: The report defines TGQN as trans, genderqueer or nonbinary, questioning or not listed.