

Your guide to getting to the Roots N Blues Festival

Roots N Blues Festival is happening Sept. 24-26 in Stephens Lake Park.

Here's a guide on parking, street closures and shuttles for the festival.

Traffic restrictions

Beginning 3 p.m. Friday and 11 a.m. Saturday and Sunday, Old 63 will be northbound only from Jack Estes Way to Hinkson Avenue. E. Walnut Street will be westbound only from Old 63 to William Street.

E. Walnut Street from Old 63 to the dead end will be closed to traffic.

Vehicles dropping off attendees should pull into the spraygrounds lot off Old 63.

Shuttles

With limited parking around the festival, attendees are encouraged to park downtown and use the free shuttle service.

Free shuttles will run starting at 3 p.m. Friday and 10:30 a.m. Saturday and Sunday.

Shuttles will pick up after the final performance each night at the Riechmann Pavilion parking lot.

Parking

Parking in the E. Walnut neighborhood will be restricted to people with passes.

Downtown parking garages are free after 6 p.m. Friday and all day Saturday and Sunday.

ADA-accessible parking will be available at the Riechmann Pavilion.
