

Rising rabies inquiries lead to more testing

The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention received 17% more rabies inquiries this summer than last summer. A total of 36 animals — only bats and skunks — have tested positive; however, other kinds of animals are being tested.

Number of animals tested

Source: Department of Health and Senior Services

YASHA MIKOLAJCZAK
& PARKER BRNANDT/Missourian

Map Materials

City of Columbia map with major roads | Boone County map with city of Columbia inlet

Missouri state map with counties (editable-->ungroup)

U.S. State map (editable --> ungroup)

