

The complex by the numbers

The Translational Precision Medicine Complex is set to break ground in April 2019 and open to the public in October 2021.

$220
million

Cost of construction and equipment
for the TPMC

275,000

Size of five-floor facility in square feet

60

Number of research faculty to be hired for the TPMC (30 will come from within the UM System, and 30 will be hired from an international pool of diverse researchers)

$900,000

Amount in research funding each of the 60 researchers is expected to generate each year