

Chronic diseases kill more black residents in Boone County

Black people die of chronic diseases at a higher rate than white people in six categories out of seven. Progressive Lung Disease is the only category where white people die at a higher rate.

