

MoDOT gives employees options to reduce costs

Hit with the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic, the department instituted a program called “shared work” to limit its spending. The program offered employees two choices — a pay cut or furlough — and most chose the latter.

Percent of employees by program option

Source: Missouri Department of Transportation
TIANTING ZHANG/Missourian