

Levels of Involvement

All campus organizations are encouraged to be a part of Mizzou Homecoming. Groups can choose one of four levels of involvement, committing to certain Homecoming events, or participate a la carte.

Royalty

Participate in royalty events. Senior nominees will face a final student vote for Homecoming King and Queen Saturday, Oct. 19.

Decorate the District

Decorate downtown businesses with Homecoming cheer through themed artwork and painted murals. Event takes place Thursday, Oct. 17-Sunday, Oct. 20.

Blood drive

Donate to the country's largest student-run blood drive Monday, Oct. 7-Thursday, Oct. 10, 11 a.m.-6 p.m. at MizzouRec.

Banner

Display Mizzou Spirit through competitive banner designs Sunday,

Oct. 13-Sunday, Oct. 20. This year's theme is "iconic movies."

Talent show

Let your star shine at the Homecoming Talent competition. Performances take place at Jesse Auditorium Monday, Oct. 14-Wednesday, Oct. 16.

Campus decorations

Celebrate Homecoming in Greektown with interactive skits, scaffolded designs, food trucks and more, Friday, Oct. 18.

Service

Tiger Food Fight and Day of Service opportunities took place in September.

Flag football

Teams competed in a flag football tournament Sunday, Sept. 29.

Parade

March—or float—in the Homecoming

Parade Saturday, Oct. 19. Participants started preparing for this iconic event back in September, if not before.
