

More families attend home-schooling trainings during the pandemic

Before COVID-19, 50-60 people a month would attend in-person trainings. These trainings help explain Missouri law to home-schooling families. Between the end of April and Oct. 22, more than 300 people every month attended the same trainings online.

In person: 50-60 a month

As of Oct. 22, just under 1,600 people had attended the Zoom trainings.

On Zoom: 310 a month
