

Low-income students less likely to earn their degrees

For a family of four, an income of $50,200 was 200% of the federal poverty level in 2018.

Percent of Missouri students who earn postsecondary degrees or certificates, by income level

Source: Missouri Department of Higher Education and Workforce Development

BEN SCOTT/Missourian