Organizations perform Monday–Wednesday

Black & Gold

Black & Gold organizations participate in these activities:

Royalty

Organizations nominate a candidate for Homecoming king or queen.

Service

During the Homecoming Day of Service, participants volunteer with The Food Bank for Central & Northeast Missouri.

Blood Drive

MU hosts the largest student-run blood drive in the country, benefiting more than 15,000 patients.

Decorate the District

Groups partner with businesses in downtown Columbia to decorate storefronts with MU spirit.

These are the organizations that reached the Black & Gold level:

- Air Force ROTC
- Alpha Kappa Alpha
- Alpha Psi Omega
- Arts & Science Student Council
- Circle K International
- Engineering Student Council
- Evans Scholars
- Global Medical Training
- Marching Mizzou
- Mizzou Quidditch
- Mizzou Student Foundation
- Sigma Alpha Iota
- STRIPES

Organizations across campus work to make Homecoming happen

The Mizzou Alumni Association identifies four levels of involvement in Homecoming for university organizations, including acts of service, competitions and efforts to decorate downtown and campus.

Listed under each level are the organizations that reached the requirements to qualify.
