

Cardinal Ritter's suspension changes Class 2 landscape

The Missouri State High School Activities Association announced Friday, that it would accept Cardinal Ritter's self-imposed ban. The results of the undefeated Lion's first seven games were vacated, meaning each game's result will not count against the opposing team's record. The Lions will not play Granite City or Althoff Catholic due to the suspension.

