

Senate Bill 28 may revive low-income housing tax credit program

Before the program was frozen in 2017, Missouri matched 100 percent of federal low-income housing tax credits allocated to the state. If SB 28 passes and revives the program, the state would instead match 72.5 percent of federal funding.

Note: The state did not match federal funding in 2017 and 2018.

Sources: OFFICE OF THE STATE AUDITOR,
SENATOR DAN HEGEMAN

THOMAS OIDE/Missourian