

Tort filings in St. Louis shrank by half after reform in 2005

The 2005 Missouri Tort Reform Act caused a 16 percent decline in tort cases heard by Missouri courts. Nineteen out of 46 circuits saw a reduction, and the 22nd Circuit, which covers St. Louis, had the most dramatic drop.

