

Wind and solar in Missouri

The energy industry is in a period of transition — from largely fossil fuel sources of generation to renewable energy, like wind and solar. Currently, Missouri is home to 14 wind farms and 24 solar power plants. Solar and wind account for approximately 32% of power plants in Missouri.

