

Columbia universities host campus specific voting locations

The three campuses across Columbia offer nearby locations for students to cast their vote for the 2024 election cycle. Memorial Union at the University of Missouri and Stephens Kimball Ballroom at Stephens College offer locations right on campus. Meanwhile, the Boone County Government Center provides a close location for both Columbia College and other students in the Columbia area.

