

Substance use and mental health contribute to pregnancy-related deaths

The Pregnancy Associated Mortality Review Board, with the Missouri Department of Health and Senior Services, reviewed maternal death from 2018-2022. Out of the 350 reviewed, 80% of the deaths were determined preventable. The leading causes of maternal deaths are mental health conditions and substance use disorders.

Percentage of deaths affected

