

What can school bonds be used for?

- Construction projects.
- Renovation of existing buildings/facilities.
- Buying furniture and equipment.

What can't school bonds be used for?

- Paying salaries.
- Paying daily operating expenses.

What can tax levies be used for?

Funding operation and daily maintenance of schools including salaries and benefits, educational materials, utility costs, etc.

How is bond debt paid off?

School bond debt is determined based on property taxes and is paid for by public tax revenue.