

219 identified clemency cases by race and sex

Missourian staff and Missouri News Network identified 69% of the 318 people whom the governor's office announced were granted clemency from December 2020 to May 2022. Of the 219 people identified, 89% were white and 85% were male.

