

Use ride-share often?

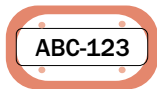

Keep these safety tips in mind

To promote ride-share safety, MU joined other SEC universities in supporting the “What’s my name?” campaign. As the name suggests, the campaign recommends riders ask the driver, “What’s my name?” before stepping in the car — the real driver will know. The campaign also recommends these precautionary steps.

Match this information about your driver in the app:

License plate

Car make and model

Car color

Driver's photo and name

