

Child abuse hotline calls dip by over 1,000 incidents in the month of March

The Department of Social Services Children's Division records hotline calls by month and classifies them as "incidents." March 2020 saw a significant decrease in incidents from March 2019, which DSS attributes to schools moving to virtual platforms.

Incidents

*At the time of publication, DSS had not released April figures.