

Construction begins on Columbia Fire Station 11

After a delayed construction process, work began this week on Fire Station 11 near the corner of Route K and Scott Blvd. The new station will cut fire service response times to reduce from six to eight minutes to about four.

