

MAP test data shows effects of pandemic

Missouri Assessment Program, or MAP, data shows students' progress toward mastering state academic standards. MAP was canceled in the 2019-2020 school year, and 2020-2021 data should be interpreted with caution because fewer students took the standardized test.

Source: Department of Elementary and
Secondary Education