

Approved boundaries will address new middle school

The recommended shift in middle school attendance area boundaries will add a seventh attendance area zone for the new middle school, outlined below in red. The Columbia School Board approved the option on Feb. 11.

