

County COVID case average declining

The seven-day average of COVID-19 cases in Boone County reached an all-time high in January. Since then, the average has decreased to 117 on Feb. 9.

*The seven-day case average may change due to reporting delays.

RIDDHI ANDURKAR/Missourian

Source: Centers for Disease Control and Prevention