

Repairs planned for MU parking structure

Construction on the 20-year-old Virginia Avenue Parking Structure could cost up to $16 million. The project will include strengthening 93 column foundations on the six-story structure. Construction is expected to finish by August of 2023.

