

Fewer people have been sentenced to jail or prison for not paying child support

The number of people sentenced to jail or prison for not paying child support decreased by 69% from 2010 to 2019. The number fell greatly in 2019 — only 220 people were sentenced for not paying child support, the lowest since 2010.

Number of people sentenced on child support charges

