County seeing a low amount of influenza deaths as people continue to wear masks

Influenza deaths are much higher at the beginning of the year according to CDC data. While Boone County was under a mask ordinance, no more than 2 weekly deaths were reported. There have been no confirmed deaths this flu season.

Source: Missouri Department of Health and Senior Services

CONNOR DIETRICH/Missourian