

Where are the UM curators from?

The governor's office will revisit appointments to the UM Board of Curators, as the terms for two members have expired. The board must represent all congressional districts in the state. A proposal to change these boundaries based on the 2020 Census is expected to pass during the ongoing state legislative session, which could further change the makeup of the board of curators. Here's a look at the hometowns for all the current members using the 2010 congressional districts.
