

Number of unexpected counseling visits

Before the pandemic, Columbia public elementary schools experienced unexpected counseling visits at a rate of 95 out of every 100 students. After the in-depth implementation of Second Step curriculum, the rate of unexpected visits decreased by 32%, to 64 out of every 100 students.

Number of visits

Source: Columbia Public Schools

BRANDON CURRY/Missourian