

West Route K closed due to roundabout construction

Construction of the west leg of the roundabout near Vermillion Drive will begin Wednesday, according to a city of Columbia news release. West Route K will be closed west of the intersection with West Old Plank Road. It will be inaccessible to drivers.

The work should be finished by 5 p.m. on Dec. 5.

