

Rock Island Corridor reimagined

Ownership of the Rock Island Corridor has been taken on by the Missouri Department of Natural Resources as of Dec. 14. The department plans to develop a 144-mile public recreational trail that will stretch from Windsor to Beaufort. This will be an addition to the 47-mile trail it already owns.

Source: Missouri Department of Natural Resources

SHANNON BELT/Missourian