

Linda J. MacDougall

Linda J. MacDougall (Doxsee), 77, passed away on Sunday morning, September 7, 2025, at her home in Bridgton, surrounded by her loved ones.

She was born on July 20, 1948, in Queens, N.Y. to Thomas Doxsee and Rose Bodkin. She attended Brockton High School and Massasoit Community College in Brockton, Mass.

As a young woman, Linda worked as a cashier, a florist, a hairdresser, until finding her true passion — sharing the gift of motherhood by fostering hundreds of children over the years and proving a loving home to her children and exchange students.

Linda loved sharing her nurturing nature. Her free time was spent growing flowers and vegetables in her garden, caring for animals, cooking, enjoying antique cars with her husband, and spending summer days boating on Sebago Lake.

She is loved by her husband, Bruce, whom she married on September 13, 1983; daughters Kimberly and her husband Don, Ashley and her husband Mike, and Destiny; sons Maurice, and Mark and his wife Natalie; her treasured grandchildren Abigail, Peter, and Jack; and her beloved great-grandchildren Chase and Declan. She was predeceased by her son Scott; siblings John, Rosemary, and Tommy; granddaughter Brittany.

A celebration of life is being planned to honor the impact Linda had on her friends and loved ones. Condolences and tributes to her family may be shared at hallfuneralhome.net. She will be missed and remembered fondly by those who knew her.
