

Charles J. Hamaty

Charles J. Hamaty, 74, passed away peacefully on September 14, 2025, at The Hospice House in Auburn. Charles, known as Chuck to many, was born on August 3, 1951, in Boston, Mass., to Edward and Lillian Hamaty.

He grew up in West Roxbury, Mass., graduating from Boston Latin School in 1969. He attended UMass Amherst for undergraduate and graduate studies, and walked on the football team as a freshman, while also participating in the marching and pep bands.

After meeting at UMass Amherst, Chuck and Jayne married on July 31, 1976, and moved to North Bridgton to begin their life together at Bridgton Academy. During his time at BA, Chuck was a dorm parent, math teacher, assistant football coach, and intramural program coordinator.

In the summer of 1979, Chuck opened The Shirt Shop and left BA after the 1985 school year to run the business full-time, becoming involved in the original town Recreation Committee and the local Chamber of Commerce.

He was immensely passionate about coaching football and mentoring the students who played for him. He was a head coach at Lake Region High School and Sacopee Valley High School, and an assistant coach for a year at Poland Regional High School.

He is survived by his beloved wife, Jayne; son, Edward and wife, Ginny; daughter, Kristine and husband, Ian; grandchildren, Noah, Emmy, and Leila; and sister, Barbara Ladouceur and family.

Services will be held on September 27 at 3 p.m. at the First Congregational Church of Bridgton, 33 South High Street. For those unable to attend, the service will be live-streamed on the church's Facebook page. If you played for or with Coach Hamaty, please feel free to wear your school colors. In lieu of flowers, please donate in Chuck's name to any of the following football programs: UMass Amherst, Bridgton Academy, Lake Region High School, or Sacopee Valley High School.

Online condolences can be sent to the family at hallfuneralhome.net