

Carol D. Snow

October 24, 1965 — September 27, 2025

Carol Denise Snow (Murphy), 59, of Copperas Cove, Texas, passed away peacefully at her home on September 27, 2025, after bravely battling Multiple Sclerosis for more than 20 years. She was born on October 24, 1965, in Maine, the daughter of Rev. James and Laura Murphy of Readfield.

Carol grew up in Maine and graduated from Lake Region High School in 1984. Shortly after graduation, she married the love of her life, Jeffrey Snow, on September 29, 1984. Together, they built a beautiful life filled with laughter, adventure, and unwavering love. She lived in Bridgton for most of her life before she and Jeff began traveling the country together for work.

Carol was a wild spirit, full of life, laughter, and love for her family. She cherished time spent with her children, grandchildren, and her beloved dog, Oakley. Her courage, humor, and zest for life inspired all who knew her.

She is survived by her husband of 41 years, Jeffrey Snow of Copperas Cove, Texas; her parents, Rev. James and Laura Murphy of Readfield; her children and their spouses, Laura and Evan Anderton of Sebago; Dr. Franki-Lin and Chris Gregor of Ridgecrest, Calif.; Harmony and Jestin Hatter of Sumter, S.C.; James Snow of Lewiston, and Nevaeh Snow of Ridgecrest, Calif.

She is also survived by her siblings and their spouses, Patricia and Gary Brousseau, James and Lynn Murphy, Robert Murphy, Nancy and James Martin, and Michael and Beth Murphy. Her greatest joy was being “Nana” to Sophia, Carol-Lin, Addison, Wesley, Mason, Kane, Charleigh, Lorlei, Kayden, and Preston.

A celebration of life will be held on October 25, 2025, from 1 to 5 p.m. in Sebago. Those wishing to attend may contact the family for details.
