

GOP Meeting JANUARY 17, 2022

POWER WAREHOUSE STARTING AT 5:41 PM

PRAYER BY MRS. CLOUD,

Pledges by the group to the Texas & American Flag led by Will Martin Ballot Order speaking from Federal to state offices to local offices.

MLK Day by Lieutenant Colonel Vanessa Hicks Callaway.

"Red is the new black, even the pope is against us." Point of Reflection content of character relationship with the Lord Jesus Christ, learn the US Constitution, improve our education system, and MLK he did not die in vain, Free at last, free at last, we have to fight for our freedoms.

First speaker is AJ Louderback, Callie Fromme speaking on his behalf, she is the Treasurer for his campaign. He is an air force veteran.

Served 5 terms as Sherriff of Jackson County.

Second Speaker is Andrew Alvarez speaking on his own behalf.

Representing himself, and he will be best to run against the Democrats.

Third Speaker Chris Mapp democrats are throwing everything at us except the Congressional District 27, I am a reformer that has been in business for 27 years, he is a Fighter, and Bring home money for the district.

Fourth Speaker is current Congressman Michael Cloud, we have been fighting on the Border issue, and put together a solution to fix what was happening at the Border. Why have ICE decreased by 98 Percent in exportations of illegal immigrants is an investigation currently going on in Washington DC.

Governor Candidates for the State of Texas

Danny Harrison, Rick Perry campaigns are both now shows.

Don Huffines campaign representative secure the border, secure our elections, and eliminate property taxes.

Allen West Campaign speaking on his behalf is Vanessa Hicks Callaway, maintain border security, defend education, defend election integrity, and defend our gun rights. He will protected our liberty by the rule of law which means we follow the US constitution.

LJ Frances for state Board of Education, They are trying to indoctrinate your children instead of equations them. Parents should have the ability to say what is read and taught in their schools.

Dr. Jill Fox for Lois Kolkhorst she doesn't have an opponent in the primary, however she does have an opponent in the General Election. Jill is working to get her message out to the voters. She is a proven and a conservative Republican.

Court of appeals Ysmael Fonseca running for Justice 13th Court of Appeals. He was a former District Judge, he made sure no money was taken away from Law enforcement.

Aaron Pena, he is an attorney, all the other judges are Democrats in that area, is running for the Justice 13 th Court of Appeals, Former Legislator in Austin, TX.

Julie Bauknight, she has been an attorney for 29 years, running for District Judge, she is running unopposed in both the Primary and the General Election.

Judge Eli Garza, running for 377 district Judge he is not opposed in the Primary and General Election.

Criminal District Attorney Constance Filley Johnson finishing her first term and she is running opposed in the Primary and General Election.

County Judge Ben Zeller is a no show. County Court At Law Judge Ernst is a no show. County Court at Law #2 Judge Dan Gilliam, he handles Class A & B misdemeanors, he has civil jurisdiction with bankruptcy's etc., and he handles Juveniles and he handles wills, guardianship, and mental health cases. He also handles appeals for JP Courts.

District clerk candidate Kim Plummer is a no show. Candidate Brandy Schustereit for County Clerk and she is currently working in the Sherrif's Department. She is conservative and she has skill set in record keeping. Current County Clerk Heidi Easley is speaking on her own behalf, come into work and get the job done, she was elected in 2015. Moved to paperless in the Court back in 2015. They developed a way to look up brands for cattle and horses which is helpful to law enforcement .

County Treasurer Sean Kennedy speaking on his own behalf. He has served four terms in this office, he also the County investment person, earned 2.0 Percent on the County Money. County Money only can be invested in short term .

Kevin Janak County Commissioner Precinct #4, claims to be the most fiscal conservative on the court, as a member of the South Texas Planning Group on Water, they have done 230 miles of new road in his precinct .

Zeb Stewart running for County Commissioner Precinct #2, running because of money he thinks we are spending too much money. Government should do what you want it to do. Voter Integrity starts with the County.

Jason Ohrt running for County Commissioner Precinct #2, running because he wants to improve the well being of Victoria, by making sure tax payers money is spent wisely.

Kenneth Sexton running for County Commissioner Precinct #4, he is a conservative small businessman, manages several employees. He knows how to make fiscally sound decisions and wants to work with TXDOT on drainage decisions. We need to improve County and City communication and work to improve Airport. He will be accountable to the taxpayers and voters.

Clint Ives current County Commissioner Precinct #4 is proud of the work of the court, they lowered tax rate in 2015 and we have maintained it. He supports law enforcement with a conservative sheriff, and conservative DA, and a conservative County Commissioners Court.

Justice of the Peace #2 Attorney Rodney Durham is a candidate for this office, he wants to talk about gratitude and thankfulness. He was appointed to fulfill an unexpired term. He treats everyone with respect and he doesn't have an opponent.

Justice of the Peace #3 Robert Witikar he is our judge magistrate.

Justice of the Peace #4 Michael Patton he believes we have over stepped, he will take care of truancy, evictions, and debt cases.

Justice of the Peace #4 John Miller is our current judge in this area.

He has a background in Sheriffs Department and is running for one more term. He hears Evictions, small claims, and appeals to the county court at law, case load has sent up because of monetary funds that have come into the county. It is cheaper to file in JP Court than it is while people file.

Judge Bill Pozzi running for County Chair is our last candidate to speak on his own behalf. He wants 75 Percent of the Republican vote in General Election.

Diana Hawes thanked everyone for their donations for the food.