

Curry County Beaches Make List of 10 Best

JEREMY C. RUARK
County Media, Inc.

The travel website, Lonely Planet, illustrates a listing of what it describes as 10 of the Best Beaches along Oregon's Pacific Coast.

Oregon's coastline as 363 miles of rugged terrain "dotted with some incredibly beautiful stretches of sand, dramatic headlands and prime surfing. Not only that, this stretch of coastline has been protected from development and designated as "the People's Coast," Lonely Planet states. "Since the Beach Bill was passed in 1913, the state's beaches, coves, and coastline have been reserved as public lands for the enjoyment of Oregonians."

- Cannon Beach is number 1 on the list as the "best beach for bird watching."
- Seaside is listed as number 2, described as the "best beach for a fun carnival atmosphere."
- Yachats is number 3, described as "best beach for getting away from it all."

The 14th annual Pirates of the Pacific Festival had the Port of Brookings-Harbor awash with swashbuckling activity

BY LINDA LEE
Curry Coastal Pilot

The port of Brookings-Harbor was alive with swashbuckling activity as the fourteenth annual Pirates of the Pacific Festival hosted a packed venue full of a variety of vendors showcasing their hand-made items as well as a diverse range of food and even one merchant selling home-brewed rum.

This year's event had not one, but two areas that were center stage to a revolving door of bands that played everything from the blues to rock, to funk and even a self-proclaimed Celtic pirate band that wrote their own music with lyrics based on the lives of pirates.

Also on deck were fire breathers and fire dancers who gave a special night-time performance that was mesmerizing to see.

Pirates walked amongst the crowds looking for their next booty and the mermaids came out of the ocean to share their magic with our community and offered photo opportunities to the crowd.

Local dance troupes, dressed in their pirate best, had the community delighted as they performed dance routines to perfection to pirate-themed music.

The cannon fire was something few did not miss as it left the onlookers with a thumping in their chest and a ringing in their ears.

Sword fight demonstrations reached an all-time high as there was no shortage of pirates willing to unsheathe their blades and fight for a lady's honor, or the chest of gold that sat at the end of the dock.

There was also a treasure hunt that mapped out clues for participants to follow to find the bounty offered and there were prizes awarded for best costumes as well as interactive crafts and games for the kids.

Something different this year was the booth of the Illinois Valley Lion's Club, out of Cave Junction. They sold tickets to raffle off a Harley Davidson motorcycle. Kids had the chance to climb on the bike and get their picture taken.

It's no secret that the Pirates of the Pacific Festival saw record crowds this year with people coming in from across the country to enjoy the event and all it had the offer.

The weather provided sunshine, the performers provided their talents and the people of the community provided their pirate spirit.

Well done!

18th Annual Dee-ni' Day Celebration set for Sept. 6

BY SCOTT GRAVES

The Tolowa Dee-ni' Nation is hosting its 18th annual Dee-ni' Day from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 6, at the Howonquet Hall Community Center in Smtih River, across from Lucky 7 Casino. The free event is open to the public and the entire community to enjoy.

The event will feature cultural demonstrations including regalia and necklace making, and the baking of traditional sand bread. There will be a tribal citizen art show, men's card games, shell dice tournament and a regalia showcase.

There will also be 60-plus food and art vendors offering items such as high-quality beads and jewelry, apparel, fine art, woodwork, glasswork, baskets and more. This is a fantastic opportunity to support local artists, find unique gifts for friends and families, and get treats for yourself.

There will also be a variety of children and adult activities such as bounce houses, face painting, a balloon artist, and a horseshoe tournament. Several Tolowa Dee-ni' Nation departments and local nonprofit organizations will host booths to share information, opportunities and services as well.

A highlight of Dee-ni' Day are the stick games, starting at 1 p.m., with athletes of all ages battling for bragging rights and cash prizes. The games, held on the beach, is a strenuous sport for men and women that combines the strength and agility of wrestling and rugby with the quick action of field hockey. Game play can get rough, with players tackling or wrestling one another to the ground.

Parking at the Howonquet Hall Community Center, basketball court and UIHS is reserved for elder. We ask that those who can please park in the overflow parking at the Howonquet Cemetery on South Indian Road. More parking is available across the street at Lucky 7 Casino.

When walking across Highway 101 to and from Lucky 7 Casino to the event please use the crosswalk and be cautious of fast-moving vehicles. A shuttle will be available.

The schedule of events will include food and art vendors, children's activities, cultural demonstrations, regalia showcase, shell dice and horseshoe tournament, stick games (at the beach) food samples, cultural events and an art show display that people can vote on. The winners of the art show will be announced at 4 p.m.

For more information about Dee-ni' Day please contact Public Information Officer Scott Graves at:

Opinion & Letters

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

The Curry County Republicans oppose any effort to recall Commissioners Jay Trost and Patrick Hollinger. These commissioners are working hard to create favorable outcomes for all the people in Curry County. We ask that you refrain from signing any petition to recall these commissioners.

I would like to highlight a couple of the positive things these commissioners are doing for our County.

1. Commissioners Trost and Hollinger are staying within 2024-2025 budget and are committed to staying within this budget and continue to do so in future years. We need to support these Commissioners to continue with the balanced 2024 budget into 2025-2026. They have asked for a forensic audit of the County finances since 2020.

2. To be prepared if there should be a catastrophic event several bridges need to be repaired to provide residential safety and commerce continuity. Trost and Hollinger are working on obtaining funding for a 2-year project to begin repairing these bridges.

3. Many other infrastructure projects have been forgotten or deferred for many years. Trost and Hollinger are working to obtain funding for these projects, but the Commissioners need to be allowed reasonable amount of time to complete these projects. This is not something that can be completed overnight.

Recalls cost the County money and these County Commissioners (Hollinger has only been in office for 6 months) should be allowed time to demonstrate their ability to serve Curry County. Voters deserve stability, progress, transparency, and accountability.

Please do NOT recall Curry County Commissioners Trost and Hollinger.

Respectfully,
Jennifer White
Curry County Republican Chair

Curry County Needs Representation, Not Infighting

Curry County has been stuck for too long in a conflict between the Sheriff's Office and the Board of Commissioners. The history is complicated, and there is more than one perspective. But at the end of the day, neither office was elected to win arguments, they were elected to serve and represent the people.

While the feud dominates attention, our community continues to face real, visible challenges: rising crime, open drug use, homelessness, prostitution, and reduced public services. Calls for help are prioritized, yet too often go unresolved if they're not deemed urgent. These aren't political talking points. They are daily realities for the people who live and work here.

This letter isn't about blame, and it's not about taking sides. It's about what public service is supposed to mean. Public office is a trust and with that trust comes the responsibility to focus on safety, access to services, and the standards the public relies on.

I'm not here to tell anyone how to do their job. I'm asking for focus. The longer this conflict continues, the longer Curry County goes without the coordination, resources, and commitment its residents deserve.

Set the fight aside. Meet, identify the shared work, make decisions, report progress in plain language the public can see and measure and take responsibility for the outcomes.

Curry County does not need winners and losers. It needs representation, results, and public servants willing to work together because communities aren't built on feuds. They're built on shared purpose, mutual respect, and the kind of focus we can all be proud of.

NICK RAIL Partnership for the Performing Arts

PPA, the Partnership for the Performing Arts, is privileged and pleased to present the iconic swing dance group Big Bad Voodoo Daddy, performing live at the Azalea Park band shell in Brookings at 3pm on Sunday, September 21st.

This is a benefit concert, with all profits going to the music departments at Del Norte Unified and Brookings-Harbor School Districts. The event opens with a short set featuring the combined jazz bands of Del Norte and Brookings-Harbor high schools, followed by 90 minutes of the most intoxicating, high octane, knock your socks off dance music on the planet.

Tickets are $20 for 18 and under, $50 for adults, and $100 for the VIP section, positioned right in front of the band with exclusive access to the dance floor. Seating is limited to 100 for VIP, so if your plan is to dance yourself silly, you'd be smart to buy your tickets ahead of time at <https://www.ppadelnorte.org/event-details/big-bad-voodoo-daddy>

Following the concert there will be an after-concert private event from 6:00 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. at Dan and Kathy Brattain's intimate ocean front mini ranch Bolina, to celebrate with the members of Big Bad Voodoo Daddy. A fundraiser for PPA, your tax-deductible donation of $100 per person guarantees a fun evening enjoying a variety of quality wine, beer, and food, a beautiful sunset, and most importantly, spending one-on-one time with the members of the band. There's even a rumor circulating that some of the guys will form a trio or quartet and play some jazz, making the evening all that more special and memorable. Tickets for this event may be purchased at <https://www.ppadelnorte.org/event-details/big-bad-voodoo-daddy-after-party-event>.

On Monday, September 22nd, BBVD comes to Crescent City to do an exclusive concert at Crescent Elk auditorium for Del Norte and Brookings-Harbor band students, followed by 3 hours of outreach at the high school for band students from schools. The kids will never forget this!

These events are generously sponsored by the Del Norte County Office of Education, CAL-ORE Life Flight, and Travel Curry County.

PPA is the local nonprofit that has supplied many 100's of new band and orchestra instruments to our public schools, enough so that there's an instrument available for any child who wants to play. They also spearheaded the recent and long overdue renovation of Crescent Elk Auditorium.

PPA's flagship project is raising the funds to build a Performing Arts and Civic Center on the Del Norte High School campus to serve the Wild Rivers Coast region for decades to come. The facility, which will be owned by the district but managed by PPA, is destined to become a central piece of the District, City and County's vision for the future. From concerts, dance performances and plays by students and community groups, to professional groups like Big Bad Voodoo Daddy, touring lecturers, town hall meetings, and corporate retreats, to conferences, wedding receptions and fund raisers in the lobby, not to mention a much-needed place for people to convene in times of emergency, the Center will effect a significant boost to our local hospitality industry and be of benefit to all of us in many ways, especially for our youth.

To make a tax-deductible gift to PPA, visit <https://www.ppadelnorte.org>. For questions, please email info@ppadelnorte.org.

Beaches

- Gold Beach is listed as number 4, "best beach for wildlife watching."
- Florence and the Oregon Dunes is number 5, as "best beach for otherworldly landscapes."
- Manzanita, described as the "best beach for an exclusive vibe," is listed number 6.
- Brookings is number 7, listed as "best beaches for incredible views."
- Bandon is number 8, "best beach for marine life."
- Depoe Bay is listed number 9 for "best whale watching."
- Number 10 on the list is Indian Beach in Ecola State Park, listed as "best beach for coastal hiking trails."

The travel website lists Depoe Bay as a small city with "coastal charm." "Located 10 miles south of Lincoln City, little Depoe Bay is edged by modern timeshare condominiums but still retains some original coastal charm," Lonely Planet notes. "It lays claim to having the world's smallest navigable harbor and being the world's whale-watching capital – pretty big talk for such a pint-sized town. Whale-watching and charter fishing are the main attractions in the area year-round." Lonely Planet also suggests Devils Punchbowl as a detour five miles south of Depoe Bay, calling it "an impressive collapsed sea cave that churns with waves and offers good tidepools nearby."

The online magazine puts Florence and the Oregon Dunes at Number 5 on its list. Stretching for nearly 50 miles between Florence and Coos Bay, the Oregon Dunes form the largest expanse of oceanfront sand dunes in the USA, according to Lonely Planet "These sandy hills tower up to 500 feet and undulate inland for up to 3 miles to meet coastal forests, harboring curious ecosystems that sustain an abundance of wildlife, especially birds. The area inspired Frank Herbert to pen his epic sci-fi Dune novels," the online site states. "The very northern and southern sections of the dunes are dominated by dune buggies and dirt bikes (off-highway vehicles, or OHVs); avoid hiking in these areas. The central section of the dunes is closed to OHVs and preserved for wildlife and more peaceful human activities such as hiking and canoeing." Lonely Planet also offers a planning tip: "Make time for Florence's Old Town neighborhood to see the town's most charming side – a quaint waterfront district nestled along the scenic Siuslaw River next to the Oregon Coast's prettiest harbor," it states. Yachats, number 3 on the list, is described as a neat and friendly little town and one of the Oregon Coast's best-kept secrets. "Lying at the base of massive Cape Perpetua, Yachats offers the memorable scenery of a rugged and windswept land,"

Lonely Planet states. "People come here to get away from it all, which isn't hard to do along this relatively undeveloped stretch of coast. Not only is the beach close to town an ideal stretch of sand and sea stacks, but Cape Perpetua also gives you even more room to roam and take in the coast." Rising crime, overdoses reflect pre-pandemic trends – not drug decriminalization – study finds

MIA MALDONADO
Oregon Capital Chronicle

For years, critics have blamed Oregon's 2020 ballot measure that decriminalized possession of small amounts of drugs for the state's rising crime and overdose rates. But a new study suggests otherwise.

Researchers from Portland State University's Department of Criminology and Criminal Justice released their final report examining the impacts of years of major drug policy changes between 2008 and 2024 on crime and drug-related deaths. The report, created in partnership with the National Institute of Justice, finds little evidence to support claims that Oregon's drug decriminalization policy caused higher crime and overdose deaths.

The report outlines a decade of Oregon's drug policy reforms, starting in 2013 when Oregon enacted a law reducing mandatory minimum sentences for marijuana and diverted more drug offenses to probation. Then in 2017, lawmakers passed a law to reclassify moderate drug possession felony offenses to misdemeanors for Schedule 1 or 2 drugs, such as heroin and cocaine.

Finally, in November 2020, Oregon voters passed Measure 110, which decriminalized possession of small amounts of drugs, such as methamphetamine and fentanyl. The policy took effect in 2021, downgrading misdemeanor charges to a violation punishable with a $100 fine.

Researchers found no evidence linking the measure to increased crime or drug deaths. Instead, the study found the COVID-19 pandemic and the emergence of fentanyl were the main drivers behind the rise in crime rates and drug-related deaths.

"Of all the events we examined, the COVID-19 pandemic disrupted the justice system the most, more so than any legislation," Brian Renauer, a lead researcher and university professor, said in a news release.

Overdose deaths were rising before Oregon decriminalized drugs.

In 2020, there were 816 overdose deaths in Oregon — about 200 more than the previous year. That number more than doubled and peaked in 2023 at 1,833 overdose deaths.

Lawmakers anticipating a citizen-led initiative to repeal Measure 110 effectively ended the drug decriminalization experiment, when overdose deaths had already begun to decline. There were 1,480 recorded overdose deaths in 2024.

Since the new law took effect in September, people caught with small amounts of drugs can once again be arrested and face criminal charges. But they can avoid charges by entering a deflection program and receiving treatment.

Christopher Campbell, a lead researcher and associate professor at the university, said that while Measure 110 had its flaws and regional impacts, crime trends statewide were stable or declining by 2023.

"What we observed was far from a causal connection to Measure 110," Campbell said. "Rather, we saw an unprecedented impact of the COVID-19 pandemic and fentanyl on public health and safety outcomes."

(This Authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority. Time: 10:00am Dept.: 2
Address of the Court: 450 H Street, Crescent City, CA 95531

If you object to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney. If you are a creditor or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code. Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.

The undersigned caused said Notice of Default and Election to Sell to be recorded in the County where the real property is located. NOTICE TO POTENTIAL BIDDERS: If you are considering bidding on this property lien, you should understand that there are risks involved in bidding at a trustee auction. You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. All bids are subject to California Civil Code 2924h and are sold "AS-IS". NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call 844-693-4761 or visit this internet website www.awest.us, using the file number assigned to this case 25-003631 Information about postponements that are very short in duration or that occur close in time to the scheduled sale may not immediately be reflected in the telephone information or on the Internet Website. The best way to verify postponement information is to attend the scheduled sale. NOTICE TO TENANT: You may have a right to purchase this property after the trustee auction if conducted after January 1, 2021, pursuant to Section 2924m of the California Civil Code. If you are an "eligible tenant buyer," you can purchase the property if you match the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. If you are an "eligible bidder," you may be able to purchase the property if you exceed the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. There are three steps to exercising this right of purchase. First, 48 hours after the date of the trustee sale, you can call 844-693-4761, or visit this internet website www.awest.us, using the file number assigned to this case 25-003631 to find the date on which the trustee's sale was held, the amount of the last and highest bid, and the address of the trustee. Second, you must send a written notice of intent to place a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 15 days after the trustee's sale. Third, you must submit a bid, by remitting the funds and affidavit described in Section 2924m(c) of the Civil Code, so that the trustee receives it no more than 45 days after the trustee's sale. If you think you may qualify as an "eligible tenant buyer" or "eligible bidder," you should consider contacting an attorney or appropriate real estate professional immediately for advice regarding this potential right to purchase. BOEM rescinds designated Wind Energy Areas

 Country Media, Inc.
 The Bureau of Ocean Energy Management (BOEM) announced it is rescinding all designated Wind Energy Areas (WEAs) on the U.S. Outer Continental Shelf (OCS), including proposed projects off the Oregon Coast.
 "This action is being taken in accordance with Secretary's Order (SO) 3437 - Ending Preferential Treatment for Unreliable, Foreign Controlled Energy Sources in Department Decision-Making - and the Presidential Memorandum of January 20, 2025 - Temporary Withdrawal of All Areas on the OCS from Offshore Wind Leasing and Review of the Federal Government's Leasing and Permitting Practices for Wind Projects," the BOEM states in a release issued July 30.

The proposed locations off the Oregon Coast included two lease areas totaling 194,995 acres - one in the Coos Bay Wind Energy Area and the other in the Brookings Wind Energy Area - which have the potential to power more than one million homes with clean, renewable energy.
 WEAs were originally established to identify offshore locations deemed most suitable for wind energy development.
 By rescinding WEAs, BOEM is ending the federal practice of designating large areas of the OCS for speculative wind development and is de-designating over 3.5 million acres of unleased federal waters previously targeted for offshore wind development across the Gulf of America, Gulf of Maine, the New York Bight, California, Oregon, and the Central Atlantic, the release states.
 The proposed wind development along the Oregon Coast has sparked opposition from state and local officials since the projects were first discussed in 2013.

 "I stand with my tribal friends, the bipartisan coastal caucus members of the legislature and especially my neighbors who live on the coast when we urged caution until there is further understanding of the impacts of to the entire environment," Oregon State Sen. Dick Anderson said when auctions for the two Oregon sites were announced in 2024 by the U.S. Department of Energy.
 "Sadly, this is a normal course of action for the federal government, who just provides lip service to all of us versus actually listening to us. My office is engaged in doing whatever we can to slow the process down before there is no turning back."
 State Rep. David Gomberg told KOIN Portland that the Oregon Caucus cannot support future wind development steps off the Oregon coast by BOEM until Oregon develops its Offshore Wind Road Map.

 "The federal government owes the people of the Oregon coast the due diligence required to ensure that these turbines won't disrupt both our coastal economy and its ecology," Gomberg told KOIN. "The Coastal Caucus stands in firm opposition to lease auctions at this time."
 The Confederated Tribes of Coos Lower Umpqua and Siuslaw Indians said the acreage in the proposal is within the tribe's ancestral territory and are important areas for tribal fishing.
 "The tribe has consistently urged that BOEM delay moving forward with wind energy development until a better understanding is made of the impacts to fish, wildlife, the marine environment, and cultural resources important to the tribe," Tribal Council Chair

Brad Kneaper said in a release. "No one, including BOEM, has an understanding on how wind development will impact the fragile marine environment."
 Amid mounting opposition to offshore wind development off the coast of Oregon, the federal government announced Friday, Sept. 27, 2024, it was delaying the planned auction for the development of two wind energy sites as Gov. Tina Kotek urged the federal agency to halt all leasing plans and stop the auction, according to an Oregon Capital Chronicle report.
 "The developments call into question the potential for future development of offshore wind energy off the Oregon coast. The state's coastal communities, seafood industry and tribes fiercely opposed the federal agency's plans, which concerned the governor," the Oregon Capital Chronicle report stated

Oregon sees 2,700 job losses in July

Oregon's seasonally adjusted nonfarm payroll employment declined by 2,700 jobs in July, following a revised loss of 8,600 jobs in June, according to the Oregon Employment Department.

The monthly unemployment reports are a key economic indicator of the state.

Job Losses July's losses were largest in financial activities (-2,700 jobs); professional and business services (-1,400); and health care and social assistance (-1,100). Gains were largest in construction (+2,900 jobs) and transportation, warehousing, and utilities (+800). Construction employed 112,700 in July, rebounding from its relatively weak prior two months, but landing well below its average level of 117,500 jobs during the prior two years.

Professional and business services has been on a declining trend since early 2023. Accounting for 254,100 jobs in July, it is down 14,800 jobs, or 5.5%, since its peak employment in March 2023. Each of its three component industries dropped by a similar percentage during that period.

Newly revised numbers for this year show lower employment levels than previously estimated for most industries.

Closer Look Since July 2024,

Oregon's total nonfarm payroll employment dropped 24,600 jobs, or -1.2%. Manufacturing lost 9,400 jobs, or 5.0%. Each of these industries cut between 3% and 4%: information, private education, wholesale trade, financial activities, and construction.

In that time, only two major industries expanded: health care and social assistance (+9,800 jobs, or 3.2%) and leisure and hospitality (+2,000 jobs, or 1.0%).

Oregon's unemployment rate was 5.0% in July and 4.9% in June, after rising gradually over the past year from 4.2% in July 2024. Oregon's 5.0% unemployment rate was 1.4 percentage points higher than the recent low of 3.6% during spring 2023.

The U.S. unemployment rate was 4.1% in June and 4.2% in July.
