Port Orford Halloween treasure hunt and Curry County trick-or-treat list

This Halloween, the sleepy fishing village of Port Orford transforms into Port Goreford

Introducing the first-ever Port Goreford Halloween Celebration, a weeklong festival of community spirit, haunted history, and enviable prizes.

At the heart of the celebration is the Battle Rock Kraken Treasure Hunt, a family-friendly adventure inspired by a legendary curse said to guard mysterious treasure washing ashore. Locals and visitors alike are invited to collect specially marked coins at participating businesses around town and return them to the “Kraken’s Chest” at the Port Orford Visitor’s Center to unlock prizes.

“We wanted to create something silly, interactive, and totally Port Orford to help drive business to the area in the slower shoulder season,” said Port Orford Main Street board member and organizer Kim Foster.

Pink Ribbons and Crucial Conversations:

October is Breast Cancer Awareness Month

By LINDA LEE
Curry Coastal Pilot

October has arrived, bringing with it a familiar splash of pink. Across the country, and the globe, the month is dedicated to Breast Cancer Awareness (BCA) Month, an annual campaign to raise public awareness about the disease, encourage early detection and support research into its cure.

The central message of BCA Month is that early detection saves lives. When breast cancer is found early, the five-year survival rate is significantly high at around ninety-nine percent.

Breast cancer remains the second most common cancer overall in women and is a leading cause of cancer death among women worldwide, but men also can be affected by the disease.

“Men don’t often realize they can get breast cancer or are told not to worry about lumps in their breast,” said Jessica Carlson, an MD at Curry Health Network and breast cancer

Missing woman’s remains possibly found

She had been missing since mid May.

81-year-old Judith Roberts was listed as missing after she was last seen on May 16, 2025. She was last seen wearing a pink shirt while operating her 2017 white Volkswagen Jetta, in the West Linn Oregon area. It was stated that Roberts may be experiencing cognitive issues.

On October 11, a local citizen located Roberts’ vehicle on a remote United States Forestry Service (USFS) road outside of Brookings, Oregon. The citizen was out hunting when he came upon Roberts’ vehicle, at the end of a heavily wooded and brushy road. The citizen located a wallet that contained Roberts’ identification inside.

Roberts was not with her vehicle at this time, and the citizen then drove to the Brookings Police department, and turned over the wallet.

After this, Curry County Search and Rescue members were deployed to search the area of Roberts’ vehicle. Search and Rescue members then discovered what is believed to be the remains of Roberts. West Linn Police Department will be putting out additional information as the missing person case was initiated with them.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

A Poem for Ira

Our Beloved Friend Ira
We will forever hold beloved Ira
Close in our yearning, encircling hearts
He has been always an amazing person,
Treasured Friend, and Wonderful Companion.
His positive energy- an inspiration to us All “Walking, Waving Man,” with two thumbs up
And a radiant, contagious smile
Ira with his compassion and sense of justice
Will always be a true legend in Brookings.
Wisdom given in computer class at SWOCC
Includes “You’ve got to figure it out for yourself”
I remember one time we were out having lunch
And during our discussion I insisted:

“I’m an ‘Expert’ ...in childhood education”
So Ira- ever the iconic, clever-witted comedian Responded: “You mean- ‘you’re an Ex spurt, ...a drip who’s a has-been!”
Ira exemplified the saying- “Question authority.”
He loved practically everyone he met and
Was truly a friend to all, including animals.
He and his beloved wife Betty
Came to Brookings in 1980, and one time
North of Harris Beach State Park- they heard a Desperate bleating for help,
And helped save a young goat
Who was stranded on a cliff ledge.
Ira would give the shirt off his back to Help someone in need, and he often gave

Wise counsel to the homeless folks around.
He demonstrated true kindness and goodwill
Whether called Christian, Buddhist, or really
Just all of us being decent human beings.
Dearest Ira we cherish you and miss you
As you continue on your spiritual journey of Eternity
We’ll wait patiently ‘til we’re together again.

Donald “Don” Meier

October 22, 1937 - October 13, 2025

Donald “Don” Meier, formerly of Beaver Falls, passed away peacefully on October 13, 2025, just days before his 88th birthday. Born on October 22, 1937, Don was known for his generosity, hard-working spirit, and his deep love for family and friends.

After graduating from high school, Don proudly served his country in the United States Navy for four years, followed by 30 years of service in the United States Coast Guard. His time in the military instilled a lifelong sense of duty, discipline, and respect for others, which defined him throughout his life.

Following his retirement from the Coast Guard, Don settled in Brookings, Oregon, with his wife Anneliese. Together, they enjoyed going to the beach, having picnics by the river, and hiking in the mountains. Don continued his life of service by helping establish the local food bank, assisting with the construction of the Trinity Lutheran Church, and being a friend to all. He was deeply committed to his community and believed in lending a hand wherever it was needed.

In his later years, Don found great joy in tending his garden with the same care he showed to those around him. Extroverted and personable, he was well-known in his community and often described himself as a “people person,” enjoying conversations, friendships, and the company of everyone he met.

Don was preceded in death by his beloved wife, Anneliese, with whom he shared many years of love, laughter, and devotion. Together they raised two children, Sylvia and Peter, who were the pride and joy of his life. He was also a devoted grandfather to his granddaughter, Brynli, who brought him immense happiness.

He is survived by his children, Sylvia and Peter, his granddaughter Brynli, and his three sisters, Shirley, Christine, and Karen. Don will be remembered for his compassion, humor, outgoing personality. He will be dearly missed.

A memorial service to celebrate Don’s life will be held at Trinity Lutheran Church (1200 East Street) at 1:00 PM on October 22, 2025. Burial services will follow at Eagle Point National Cemetery at 10:00 AM on October 23, 2025. Friends and family are welcome to attend and honor his memory.

In lieu of flowers, we ask that you donate to the Honor Flight of Oregon program, <https://www.honorflightforegon.org/donate/donation-information>.

Two Deceased Adults Found, Deemed Unattended Pending Further Investigation

PRESS RELEASE

On October 19th, at about 4:51 p.m., Curry County Sheriff’s Dispatch received a call from Jot’s Resort Manager, of an unattended death in one of the Condos. Sheriff Ward was called and responded to Jot’s Resort, where he contacted the caller. The caller stated that while walking his dog, he saw on one of the balcony’s, a male subject that appeared to be deceased. The manager stated he went inside the room and from the doorway was not able to get a response from the person. Sheriff Ward entered the condo and, on the back deck, found thirty-five-year-old Daniel Faris, deceased. Also on the deck, Sheriff Ward discovered twenty-eight-year-old Taylor Young, deceased. It was reported that both Faris and Young had lived together in their condo for just under two years.

Lt. John Ensley and Sergeant Zane Van Zelf were called to respond as well from their residences. A cursory search of Faris and Young’s residence revealed that both Faris and Young may have died of ingesting an unknown substance. There was no sign of foul play, no obvious injuries to either person.

The Curry County District Attorney was notified and after being briefed on the situation, authorized the release of both Faris and Young to Redwood Memorial Services in Brookings. Next of Kin for both Faris and Young were notified. The Curry County Sheriff’s Office is continuing the investigation.

Women

Ages 40 Through 74 at average risk for breast cancer should

Get a Mammogram Every Other Year

according to U.S. Preventive Services Task Force 2024 guidelines.

Awareness

survivor. “Younger women do get breast cancer, and although less common, in some cases it can be more aggressive.”

Early detection is the key and there are several ways one can be proactive in their approach. The first is clinical breast exams (CBEs), which are the physical examinations performed by one’s doctor. The second is routine self-exams where a person should be aware of changes to the breast such as a lump, skin changes or discharge from the nipples.

“Pay attention to your breasts,” said Cori Stephens, Curry Heath Network’s Director of Ancillary Services. “I know this can be uncomfortable, especially for young girls, but it is so important for women of all ages (beginning when breasts begin to develop) to stay familiar with the shape, size, texture, and appearance of your breasts, and immediately address any unexpected changes.”

The most effective way to screen for breast cancer is through a mammography or ultra sound. The guidelines for when a person should have regular x-ray screenings vary, but it’s generally recommended that women should have routine mammograms in their early 40s.

Stephens explained that there are two types of mammograms, a screening mammogram and a diagnostic mammogram. The screening mammogram is performed specifically designed to screen for any signs or breast cancer and a diagnostic mammogram is being performed because of an abnormal finding.

“Diagnostic mammo-grams use different techniques, such as spot compression or magnification, and are frequently paired with breast ultrasound to better visualize these areas and determine if they are benign (like a cyst) or if they remain suspicious and should be biopsied,” explained Stephens.

If a diagnosis of cancer is given, the treatment is based on ‘stage level’ of the cancer and several other factors such as the density of the breasts and a person’s willingness to undergo radiation therapy or a mastectomy, which can be challenging.

Dr. Carlson can speak from experience on the challenges of overcoming cancer and a double mastectomy because she is a breast cancer survivor.

“It is challenging to have mastectomies. Scars can be painful, sometimes people can be left with swelling or lymphadenopathy in their arms,” said Dr. Carlson. “Most people have numbness or significantly decreased sensation in their chest/breast skin after breast cancer surgery. Also, most people do miss their natural breasts. They are part of one’s identity.”

And then there’s the thought of ‘will the cancer return?’ This is something every person with a positive diagnosis lives with for the rest of their lives.

“Another challenge is always wondering if the cancer will come back,” said Dr. Carlson. “Anytime a cancer survivor gets a lump or bump we end up getting another biopsy.”

Although talking about such things may be uncomfortable, it’s vital for society to normalize the conversation so that a better understanding and awareness can begin to push through any boundaries, such as economics, that may hold one back from getting screened.

In Curry County, we’re fortunate to have teams of individuals who are willing to go the extra mile and have open conversations with patients about recommendations and financial options available should one be without insurance.

“We try to make it as easy as possible to get a mammogram,” said Dr. Carlson. “People who don’t have insurance or don’t have access to health care or primary care often don’t get proper screenings.”

Dr. Carlson is cancer free and notes that having the disease puts life into perspective and that she, and her husband who is also a cancer survivor, no longer sweat the small stuff.

While breast cancer awareness has grown immensely since the campaign’s inception, advocates emphasize that the work is far from over. BCA Month serves as a key fundraising period for organizations like the American Cancer Society and Susan G. Komen Foundation, with the money being channeled into research for new treatments, support services for patients and education. For more information log onto: <https://www.national-breastcancer.org/breast-cancer-awareness-month>.

The radiologists of Curry General Hospital and Curry Medical Center are accredited by The American College of Radiology. The Mammography department is also fully ACR accredited. ACR Accreditation is the Gold Standard in radiological accreditation and is widely recognized as a hallmark of safe, quality care. When you see the ACR gold seal, you can rest assured that your prescribed imaging test is being done at a facility that has met the highest level of imaging quality and radiation safety.

Commonly known as: 47500 Pacific View Rd, Langlois, OR 97450 The sale will be held at In the lobby of the Curry County Courthouse, 29821 Ellensburg Avenue, Gold Beach. The Secretary of Housing and Urban Development will bid an estimate of $1,037,266.55. There will be no proration of taxes, rents or other income or liabilities, except that the purchaser will pay, at or before closing, his prorata share of any real estate taxes that have been paid by the Secretary to the date of the foreclosure sale. When making their bids, all bidders except the Secretary must submit a deposit totaling $103,726.65 [10% of the Secretary's bid] in the form of a certified check or cashier's check made out to the Secretary of HUD. Each oral bid need not be accompanied by a deposit. If the successful bid is oral, a deposit of $103,726.65 must be presented before the bidding is closed. The deposit is nonrefundable. The remainder of the purchase price must be delivered within 30 days of the sale or at such other time as the Secretary may determine for good cause shown, time being of the essence. This amount, like the bid deposits, must be delivered in the form of a certified or cashier's check. If the Secretary is the high bidder, he need not pay the bid amount in cash. The successful bidder will pay all conveyancing fees, all real estate and other taxes that are due on or after the delivery of the remainder of the payment and all other costs associated with the transfer of title. At the conclusion of the sale, the deposits of the unsuccessful bidders will be returned to them. The Secretary may grant an extension of time within which to deliver the remainder of the payment. All extensions will be for 15-day increments for a fee of $500.00, paid in advance. The extension fee shall be in the form of a certified or cashier's check made payable to the Secretary of HUD. If the high bidder closes the sale prior to the expiration of any extension period, the unused portion of the extension fee shall be applied toward the amount due. If the high bidder is unable to close the sale within the required period, or within any extensions of time granted by the Secretary, the high bidder may be required to forfeit the cash deposit or, at the election of the foreclosure commissioner after consultation with the HUD Field Office representative, will be liable to HUD for any costs incurred as a result of such failure. The commissioner may, at the direction of the HUD field office Representative, offer the Property to the second highest bidder for an amount equal to the highest price offered by that bidder. There is no right of redemption, or right of possession based upon a right of redemption, in the mortgage or others subsequent to a foreclosure completed pursuant to the Act. Therefore, the Foreclosure commissioner will issue a Deed to the purchaser(s) upon receipt of the entire purchase price in accordance with the terms of the sale as provided herein. HUD does not guarantee that the property will be vacant. The amount that must be paid if the Mortgage is to be reinstated prior to the scheduled sale is $1,036,811.98, as of 11/16/2025, plus all other amounts that would be due under the mortgage agreement if payments under the mortgage had not been accelerated, advertising costs and postage expenses incurred in giving notice, mileage by the most reasonable road distance for posting notices and for the Foreclosure Commissioner's attendance at the sale, reasonable and customary costs incurred for title and lien record searches, the necessary out-of-pocket costs incurred by the Foreclosure Commissioner for recording documents, a commission for the Foreclosure Commissioner, and all other costs incurred in connection with the foreclosure prior to reinstatement. Kissing Rock Coffee Strikes Gold

At Golden Bean The Americas

Andrew and Christine Houghtaling win big at coffee roasting competition

Kissing Rock Coffee has earned remarkable acclaim at Golden Bean The Americas, the world’s largest coffee roasting competition, held October 7 thru 11 in Houston, Texas.

The Southern Oregon Coast roaster brought home an astounding 16 medals across four categories, including the coveted Gold Medal for its signature Dancing Goat roast.

Founded in 2020 by husband-and-wife team Andrew and Christine Houghtaling, Kissing Rock Coffee has become synonymous with craftsmanship, intentionality, and community.

Every bean is roasted, packaged, and served in-house on the Oregon Coast, embodying their passion for quality and authenticity.

“We worked tirelessly preparing for the Golden Bean competition this year,” said Master Roaster Andrew Houghtaling. “Every roast was fine-tuned through tasting panels, cuppings, and constant refinement. To see that dedication recognized on this scale is both humbling and exciting.”

The couple’s journey began long before the medals. After years in coffee farming and consulting, Andrew and Christine combined their expertise and vision to create Kissing Rock Coffee — a roastery built on precision, curiosity, and a deep love of their craft. In 2024, they opened their first brick-and-mortar café in Gold Beach, a showcase for their award-winning coffees and the vibrant community that supports them.

“It’s been an incredible journey,” said Christine. “We’re really just getting started showcasing our love of innovating and creating coffees that offer both exceptional quality and meaningful experiences for our clients.”

The Golden Bean Americas competition brings together roasters from across the Western Hemisphere for a week of tasting, education, and collaboration. For the Houghtalings, it was both a professional milestone and a personal adventure.

“We honestly came to learn and connect,” Andrew explained. “Coming to Golden Bean was a great opportunity for us to grow together as a team and also expand our network. Bringing home 16 medals was beyond anything we imagined — a genuine ‘pinch me’ moment.” As the awards ceremony unfolded, the couple listened as their name was called — again and again. “When they announced Dancing Goat for the Gold, we were stunned,” Christine recalled. “It was a little surreal, and deeply rewarding, to see our work recognized alongside so many incredible roasters.”

Awards Summary

- 8 Silver Medals
- 7 Bronze Medals

Their excellent performance earned them a coveted invitation to compete at the Golden Bean World Series in Newcastle, Australia.

County lawsuit against sheriff reaches judgement

By LINDA LEE
Curry Coastal Pilot

The declaratory judgment suit filed against Curry County’s Sheriff John Ward in January of this year by the Curry County Board of Commissioners (BOC) has now reached a decision by the court.

The lawsuit was originally filed to define the boundaries of authority, particularly regarding the sheriff’s compliance with BOC’s requests for information and policies.

The long-standing core conflict, which stems from disagreements over the respective roles, responsibilities, and authority of the BOC and the sheriff was exacerbated by budget issues following a failed law enforcement levy in May 2024 and has now somewhat come to an end. The lawsuit was regarded as a ‘last resort’ by the BOC to engage the sheriff to comply and cooperate with the governing board.

The goal of the lawsuit aimed to resolve any disagreements and clearly define the boundaries of authority, in direct relationship to Board Order 23510 which would require the sheriff to:

- Submit contracts made with outside agencies for legal review
- Provide personnel records to the county's human resources department
- Provide duplicate keys to all county vehicles
- Acknowledge that property purchased with county funds belongs to the county
- Cooperate with the sale or transfer of surplus assets
- Attend relevant board meetings upon request
- Provide "all records, information and supporting documents" to the BOC upon request.

According to Sheriff Ward, and his attorney, they argued that the BOC's order constitutes an overreach of the commissioners' powers and is a violation of local governance and constitutional law, asserting his office has "autonomous authority" in certain areas.

After the initial ruling, the BOC issued a press release that states:

“The Fifteenth Judicial District Circuit Court of Oregon, presided over by Judge Martin E. Stone, has issued a determination regarding the Summary Judgment Motions filed in the case of Curry County Board of Commissioners v. John Ward, Sheriff of Curry County, case number 25CV02497.

The court's decision addressed eight items listed in Board Order 23510. Judge Stone ruled that items 2, 3, 4, Georgia Cockerham (r) and John Hart were out in the community trying to get signatures for the recall effort of two Curry County Commissioners.

6, 7, and 8 are within the rights of the Board of Commissioners (BOC) to order. Item #1 will be ruled upon at trial on October 28th, and item #5 was determined to be outside the authority of the BOC.

The BOC appreciates and respects Judge Stone's ruling. This clarification of roles and responsibilities will pave the way for several counties facing similar issues, allowing them to move forward in a productive and co-operative manner, as the citizens of Curry County and the State of Oregon deserve. . .”

On several points, the court ruled in the BOC’s favor as the sheriff must now comply with requirements to turn over contracts for legal review, provide personnel records, hand over duplicate keys to county vehicles and acknowledge that county property belongs to the county.

With the issue of the sheriff having to attend every BOC meeting, the court ruled in favor of Sheriff Ward stating that the ‘sheriff attend board meetings upon request was rejected, with the judge ruling this demand exceeded the commissioners' authority.’

Not all issues were resolved and there will now be a trial to decide whether the sheriff must provide "all records, information and supporting documents" to the commissioners upon request, as the sheriff argues some records are confidential. This issue is scheduled for trial on October 28, 2025.

In other legal news between the sheriff, the BOC and Curry County Counsel Ted Fitzgerald, the sheriff filed a State Bar Complaint in September of 2024, accusing Fitzgerald of a "vendetta fueled by personal animosity". The Oregon State Bar dismissed the complaint in August of 2025.

Currently, there are recall petitions being circulated that seek to recall Commissioners Jay Trost and Patrick Hollinger, alleging a "campaign against Sheriff John Ward". The petitions were initiated by Curry County Lt. Jeremy Krohn and Andre Bay and allege that the commissioners are fostering a "culture of fear and retaliation," supporting unnecessary legal fees, avoiding public engagement and supporting the takeover of public lands.

No Kings Marches Occur Across the Country

Out of the 340 million people that live in the United States, seven million people took to the streets, on October 18th, to peacefully protest against our current president and the state of the country.

With more than 2,700 events in all fifty states, and worldwide, people rallied together to demonstrate their discontent with the direction the United States is headed.

This on-going movement isn’t expected to end any time soon as other marches are being planned.
