

Local Tree Service Helps Clear Roads

Amidst Severe Storms in Southern Oregon, Chetco River over its banks

By LINDA LEE
Curry Coastal Pilot

As a powerful Pacific storm system wreaked havoc across Southern Oregon, causing widespread road closures and travel disruptions, one local tree service took it upon themselves to lend a helping hand.

Tanner Harvey, owner of Tili-kum Tree Care, spent his Sunday clearing downed trees and debris from roadways, making them passable for stranded motorists in Brookings. His wife, Crystal, joined him, providing assistance and documenting their efforts.

"This morning, seeing all the problems people were having getting around, I decided to cruise around with my equipment to see if I could help at all," said Harvey.

Based out of Gold Beach, Tilikum Tree Care serves the broader Southern Oregon region. While they don't yet have a website, their services can be found on Yelp, Facebook, and Angi's List.

Brookings to Build Police Storage Facility with Donation

By LINDA LEE
Curry coastal Pilot

The City of Brookings is moving forward with plans to construct a new police storage facility at the Public Works upper yard, located at 715 Railroad Street. The project is made possible by a generous donation from the John G. Atkins Foundation, specifically earmarked for the city to build the facility.

City officials announced the plans at a recent council meeting, detailing the project's progress and the challenges overcome in the bidding process. The proposed facility will be constructed between two existing equipment storage buildings and will provide a dedicated space for storing police training equipment.

"The facility will be used for storage of equipment vehicles and trailers as well as materials for streets water, storm, and Wastewater projects," said Anthony Baron Public Works and Development Services Director. "The proposed police storage facility will be constructed between the two equipment storage buildings and will provide a location for storage of police training equipment."

A donation from the John G. Atkins Foundation was received in June 2024; however, the initial bid process for the project encountered a setback when the city received only one bid, which was over budget.

Undeterred, the city decided to act as its own general contractor and re-advertised the project for bids from subcontractors in December 2024. This strategy proved successful for the city in the past, resulting in significant savings on projects such as the Occasion Hall at Salmon Run Emergency Operations Center, the restroom and concession buildings at Azalea Park, and shop buildings at Azalea Park.

"The city has completed projects in the past acting as its own general contractor resulting in considerable savings," Baron stated. "Even though we're calling this a police storage building, we're actually also using it for police training."

At the council meeting, three subcontractor bids exceeding $25,000 were presented and approved. City staff recommended entering into agreements with the responding low bidder and anticipates breaking ground in early April, with project completion expected in July or August of this year.

Specifically, it will house the Milo system, a training simulator currently stored in the Emergency Operations Center.

"I just want to say how fortunate the city is to be able to have that as a resource and have people who care enough about our law enforcement and safety of our city to chip in like that," said Council Member Clayton Malmberg.

With the necessary approvals secured, the City of Brookings is poised to begin construction on the new police storage and training facility, enhancing its resources for law enforcement and public safety.

"I thought that was just outstanding," said Council Member Phoebe Pereda. "I'm grateful for that too. It helps stretch what we can do as a city in much greater ways. I'm very appreciative of that, and just like we saw last time with the swimming pool, you know where you feel strongly about things in our community. Throwing your financial support behind that is greatly appreciated."

RE: Opposition to the Proposed Overlapping Super Health District and Forced Redistribution of Services

Dear Senator Smith and Representative Boice,

As Chief Executive Officer of Curry Health District, I am writing to strongly oppose the proposal being circulated by United Food and Commercial Workers (UFCW) Local 555 regarding the future of Bay Area Hospital (BAH) and its potential impact on healthcare access in Curry, Coos, and Douglas counties. While we recognize the financial challenges BAH is facing, the proposed solution — the creation of a new multi-county health district that would overlap existing, independently governed health districts without first allowing residents a vote on whether it should exist—is unacceptable.

The UFCW proposal suggests combining the entirety of Curry County including Brookings-Harbor, Curry General Hospital (Curry Health District), Southern Coos Health, Coquille Valley Hospital, Bay Area Hospital, and Lower Umpqua Hospital into a single “Super” Health District, which would impose a new property tax on residents to bail out Bay Area Hospital’s $50 million debt. Although the proposal states that the tax levy itself would be subject to voter approval, it does not give residents the opportunity to decide whether they want to be included in a new regional health district in the first place. This fundamentally undemocratic maneuver would force our constituents—many of whom already struggle with rising living costs—to accept a new government structure that they did not approve. Additionally, the proposal’s intent to forcibly shift profitable service lines from hospitals like ours to BAH would not only jeopardize the financial stability of the affected hospitals but also create an undue burden on patients, who would be forced to travel unnecessarily for care that is currently available locally.

Our Key Concerns:

- Rushed District Formation Without Public Input – The proposal would create an entirely new, overlapping health district without allowing voters to first determine whether they want to be included in it. While a tax levy would appear on the ballot, residents would not have a say in whether a new government entity should exist in the first place. This approach sets a dangerous precedent, stripping communities of their ability to decide their own healthcare future.
- Forcibly Removing Revenue-Generating Services from Critical Access Hospitals (CAHs) – The proposal openly states that profitable service lines from rural hospitals would be transferred to BAH to improve its financial position. This would severely impact hospitals that rely on these services to maintain financial stability — especially Critical Access Hospitals like Curry General, which depend on a balanced mix of services to continue operations. Eliminating these revenue streams could threaten the long-term viability of affected hospitals and, ultimately, reduce access to care for rural communities.

We Support a Viable Solution for BAH, But Not at the Expense of Other Communities

We fully support efforts to stabilize Bay Area Hospital, but we believe solutions must be equitable, transparent, and respect the autonomy of local health districts. Creating a new regional health district without first allowing residents to decide whether they want to be part of it—followed by a tax levy vote after the fact—is a backward approach. Rushing into a forced regionalization scheme—while stripping healthcare services away from stable, locally controlled hospitals—is not the answer.

Furthermore, it is important to highlight that Bay Area Hospital (BAH) has a viable alternative to this drastic action and is actively engaged in negotiations with Quorum Health to explore sustainable solutions. This ongoing effort suggests that BAH is not without options, making the proposed Super Health District an unnecessary and potentially disruptive initiative.

We urge you to oppose any legislation that would:

- Create a new health district that overlaps existing, independent health districts without first allowing residents to vote on whether they want to be included.
- Forcibly shift revenue-generating and profitable services away from financially stable hospitals to BAH, jeopardizing the ability of rural hospitals to sustain critical healthcare services and creating unnecessary travel burdens for patients.
- Impose new property taxes on residents of Curry, Coos, and Douglas counties to bail out BAH.

We appreciate your leadership and commitment to protecting local control and accessible healthcare in Southwest Oregon. We ask for your continued support in preserving the integrity of local healthcare districts and ensuring that any solution for BAH does not come at the expense of the residents and hospitals that have successfully managed their own resources.

Please do not hesitate to reach out if you would like to discuss this matter further.

Sincerely,

Virginia Williams

Gold Beach Celebrates Grand Opening of Master Gardener Greenhouse and Learning Garden

By Linda Lee
Curry Coastal Pilot

A vibrant crowd of over one-hundred fifty people gathered at the Gold Beach Community Center on Friday, February 28th, to celebrate the grand opening and open house of the Curry County Master Gardener Association's new demonstration greenhouse and learning garden.

The event, a testament to community spirit and horticultural enthusiasm, featured delicious food, educational stations and the opportunity to purchase spring bulb planters, all accompanied by lively conversations and music.

The new facility, a collaborative effort with Oregon State University Extension, marks a significant milestone for the Master Gardener volunteers, community members dedicated to sharing sustainable gardening knowledge.

"Facilities like this are a staple of Master Gardener projects in Oregon and across the nation," said Master Gardener Julia Bott.

The 24x48 foot greenhouse, boasting an indoor teaching area, was constructed amidst challenging weather conditions last fall and early winter.

The adjacent learning garden, slated for development over the next two years, will showcase various planting beds, offering practical examples and information on growing vegetables, flowers, pollinators and native plants.

This new space will allow the Master Gardeners to expand their educational outreach, particularly for adults. While the volunteers have been active in local school gardens, public access has been limited due to safety concerns.

The greenhouse and garden at the Gold Beach Community Center will now provide a dedicated space for enhanced educational programs.

The first major event at the new site will be the Curry County Master Gardener Association's annual plant sale, scheduled for Saturday, May 10th, from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. Educational workshops, open garden days and commuty projects will be phased in over the next two years.

The project's success was made possible by grants from numerous foundations, proceeds from the annual Master Gardener Plant Sale and generous contributions from individual Master Gardeners and community members.

Bott emphasized the program's commitment to providing research-based, sustainable gardening information derived from Oregon State University research.

Master Gardener volunteers, trained by the Curry County Extension Office, play a crucial role in disseminating horticultural knowledge. They answer gardening inquiries, staff plant clinics and sales and engage in various community outreach activities, including speaking to local groups and serving on advisory committees.

The Curry County Extension Office, in partnership with the Master Gardener program, continues to provide invaluable resources and opportunities for the public to learn and engage in the art and science of gardening.

You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same Lender may hold more than one mortgage or Deed of Trust on the property. Notice to Property Owner The sale date shown on this Notice of Sale may be postponed one or more times by the Mortgagee, Beneficiary, Trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about Trustee Sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may visit the Internet Website address www.Xome.com or call Trustee Corps at (949) 252.8300 for information regarding the Trustee's Sale for information regarding the sale of this property, using the file number assigned to this case, CA07001610-22-2. Information about postponements that are very short in duration or that occur close in time to the scheduled sale may not immediately be reflected in the telephone information or on the Internet Website. The best way to verify postponement information is to attend the scheduled sale.) emspace Notice to Tenant NOTICE TO TENANT FOR FORECLOSURES AFTER JANUARY 1, 2021 You may have a right to purchase this property after the trustee auction pursuant to Section 2924m of the California Civil Code. If you are an "eligible tenant buyer," you can purchase the property if you match the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. If you are an "eligible bidder," you may be able to purchase the property if you exceed the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. There are three steps to exercising this right of purchase. First, 48 hours after the date of the trustee sale, you can call 800-758-8052, or visit this internet website www.Xome.com, using the file number assigned to this case CA07001610-22-2 to find the date on which the trustee's sale was held, the amount of the last and highest bid, and the address of the trustee. Second, you must send a written notice of intent to place a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 15 days after the trustee's sale. Third, you must submit a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 45 days after the trustee's sale. If you think you may qualify as an "eligible tenant buyer" or "eligible bidder," you should consider contacting an attorney or appropriate real estate professional immediately for advice regarding this potential right to purchase. Wyden, Merkley, Colleagues

Introduce Legislation to Reverse Damage from Trump Administration's Egregious Cuts at VA

Washington D.C.—U.S. Senators Ron Wyden and Jeff Merkley said today they have joined Senate colleagues in introducing comprehensive legislation that would protect veterans, military spouses and VA employees in Oregon and nationwide indiscriminately targeted in the Department of Government Efficiency’s (DOGE) cuts at VA and across the federal government.

“Veterans and the benefits they earned with their service to our country are under indiscriminate and unjust attack by Trump, Musk and their flunkies at DOGE,” Wyden said. “The Putting Veterans First Act would ensure these unduly fired employees are returned to work and ensure that service for veterans is not interrupted for one day longer.”

“There is no making sense of the Trump Administration’s cruel, reckless plans to fire over 80,000 VA employees, many of them veterans themselves. Our veterans and military families deserve the full measure of our appreciation, not this stunning betrayal by President Trump,” Merkley said. “All my colleagues should support this bill to reinstate and protect these heroes from Trump and Republicans’ illegal and reckless cuts.”

Veterans make up 30 percent of the federal workforce, with about 640,000 veterans working in federal agencies. For decades, administrations of both parties have made hiring veterans and military spouses to work in the federal government a priority—including Donald Trump’s previous administration. Just this week, an internal memo leaked the Trump administration’s plans to cut more than 80,000 VA employees, which would include at least 20,000 veterans, who make up 25 percent of VA’s workforce.

The Putting Veterans First Act would do the following:

- Reinstate and protect members of the veteran and military community indiscriminately fired by DOGE working as federal employees

- Protect the quality of VA care, benefits and employment
- Increase transparency and oversight of VA staffing, claims backlog and wait times data

- Protect veterans’ private data from DOGE and unelected billionaires
- Determine the financial impact of DOGE’s reckless cancellation of contracts at VA

• Provide critical mental health care for former and current civil servants

- Provide employment assistance for members of the Veteran and military community fired from the federal government in Trump’s mass terminations

The legislation was led by U.S. Senator Richard Blumenthal, D-Conn.

Ruth Tarantino Cavaliere

11/14/1927 - 3/1/2025

Ruth Tarantino Cavaliere, 97, was peacefully called home by the Lord on March 1, 2025, where she was reunited with her beloved husband of forty years, Frank J. Cavaliere.

Ruth was born and raised in Pittsburg, California. While working as an usher at the local movie theatre when in high school, she met Frank, who told her she was too young but that he would re-turn after the war and marry her. Always a man of his word, after serving in the Navy at Saipan, he returned and found her working at Wells Fargo Bank. He married her, she quit working, and they started their family, raising two daughters, Carolyn and Marilyn. As Frank’s career as a General Contractor expanded to real estate development, they later moved to the Monterey Peninsula. Once their daughters were grown, Ruth returned to banking and advanced to the management team of Wells Fargo Bank at the Del Monte Center where she worked for many years. This was an all-female trail-blazing management team, which was way ahead of its time, before women in man-agement were the norm.

After they both retired, the couple relocated to Bellingham, WA, where they built their home on the bay. It was here she had the opportunity to perfect her Italian cooking and baking skills, while she and her husband together enjoyed mastering their gardening skills in their spacious yard surround-ing their home. Frank, not one to stay idle, began yet another career in his retirement, owning and operating a commercial fishing vessel, fishing for salmon and crab in Bellingham Bay, salmon in Alaska, and herring in San Francisco. Ruth excelled in preparing all the fresh seafood he always brought home and loved sharing it with others.

Ruth was incredibly social, with a dazzling smile, who never met a stranger, and loved entertaining. Her oldest daughter, Carolyn, and her family moved to Bellingham as well. Frank and Ruth so enjoyed those special times with their grandchildren. Life was good until Frank, the love of her life, passed away in 1985, at the age of 64. (She remained a widow for the next 40 years.) Five years later, Ruth moved to Brookings, Oregon, where her youngest daughter, Marilyn, lives. In Brook-ings, Ruth became involved in just about every organization and event held in Brookings; she loved volunteering, keeping herself busier than ever. She moved her mother, Lena Tarantino, from Pittsburg to Brookings where she was able to care for her until she passed at 102.

Ruth is survived by her daughters Carolyn Cavaliere Marilley, of Pacific Grove, and Marilyn Cavaliere Busch (Bob Busch), of Brookings, Oregon; her granddaughter Andrea Jones Kopp, (Wayland Kopp), four great grandchildren Rayne Tyson, Cedar Tyson, Ashton Kopp, and Tannis Kopp, and her great-great grandson Jasper Tyson, all of Carmel Valley. She also has many nieces, nephews, and cousins. She was preceded in death by her loving husband, Frank J. Cavaliere and her beloved grandson, Frank Joseph Cavaliere-Jones, her mother, Lena, father, Pete, and brother, Joe Tarantino.

“I have been a Catholic my entire life,” Ruth proclaimed. “I thank God for the good life

He gave me. I believe when I get to Heaven, all my family will greet me and my beloved grandson, Frankie, will come up to me, hug me, and say, “Hi, Nana Ruth!”

A memorial mass will be said for Ruth at Star of the Sea Catholic Church in Brookings on April 25, 2025, at 10 am.

A family ceremony and interment will be held at the lovely and historic Monterey Lake El Estero Cemetery at a later date.

Unclaimed Capital Credits

Find out if you have an unclaimed capital credit check from 2020

Coos-Curry Electric Cooperative Inc. is searching for members who have unclaimed capital credit checks issued in 2020. If you were a member who received electric service from CCEC between 1991 and 1993, there may be a check from 2020 with your name on it for your capital credits.

The names of members who have unclaimed capital credits paid in 2020 will appear in a special insert within the Curry Coastal Pilot newspaper. The insert will be published at least one time in January, February, March and April 2025. You can also visit www.ccec.coop/capital-credits to view the list.

What are capital credits?

Capital credits reflect each member's ownership in the cooperative. You, as a member, are an owner of CCEC, and the allocated margins, or capital credits, are just one of the many advantages of membership. Unlike investor-owned utilities, CCEC provides electric service to our members at cost and any profits from providing electric service are paid back to the members, and not paid to out of the area shareholders. Members invest in CCEC when they buy power. Each year, after all expenses have been paid, any remaining margin from providing electric service are allocated to members as capital credits in proportion to their electric use.

Contact Us

Go to www.ccec.coop/capital-credits to see if your name appears on the list, or if you know the address or phone number of a person or business on the list.

If you are not the member listed, you must be legally authorized to claim one of these checks, including checks for members who are deceased.

A form is available to fill out on the CCEC website. Please provide your name, the listed member's name and telephone number. A member of our team will contact you as soon as possible. For additional questions, contact us at 541-332-3931 or by email at capitalcredits@cooscurryelectric.com.

Unclaimed capital credits will be forfeited and reclaimed by CCEC as permanent equity six months after the last published notice. A portion of the reclaimed capital credits are distributed to community organizations as charitable donations for the benefit of the communities we serve.

Visit www.ccec.coop/capital-credits to view the unclaimed capital credit list.

The Chetco Community Public Library Received Bequest from Napa Valley Resident

By LINDA LEE
Curry Coastal Pilot

The Chetco Community Public Library District has announced a generous bequest of nearly $124,000 from the estate of Dorothy Anne Fagundes. While Mrs. Fagundes and her husband, Ron, resided primarily in Napa Valley, California, they maintained a home in the Brookings area and held a strong connection to the community.

The substantial gift of $123,947.74 will significantly boost the library's ongoing efforts to enhance community engagement and expand access to resources.

"We are deeply grateful for this significant contribution from Mrs. Fagundes," said Julie VanHoose, Director of the Chetco Community Public Library District. "Her commitment to our community and belief in the power of public libraries will have a lasting impact on our services and programs."

The bequest will support several key initiatives outlined in the library's strategic plan, including the development of a makerspace, a creative hub equipped with tools and technology for hands-on learning and innovation.

The library also plans to upgrade its Forest Room into a state-of-the-art teleconference room to facilitate virtual meetings, workshops, online streaming, and remote learning opportunities.

Additionally, a new keycard-building access system will allow for expanded before-and after-hours use of meeting rooms, accommodating diverse schedules and community needs.

These projects align with the library's mission to serve as a community hub that inspires new ideas, fosters connections, and promotes lifelong learning. VanHoose emphasized the importance of such donations, explaining that while the library's tax base covers most operational costs, major projects rely on external funding sources like donations and grants, which feed the Library Improvement Fund.

"Dorothy Fagundes's legacy serves as a reminder of the profound impact that individual generosity can have on community institutions," VanHoose said.

The library is encouraging others to consider including the Chetco Community Public Library District in their annual giving and estate planning.

Severe Storms

"We understand the safety issues that come with impassable roads and just wanted to help where we could," Harvey explained.

The region has been battered by severe weather recently. The Oregon Department of Transportation (ODOT) issued multiple warnings throughout the weekend.

ODOT warned travelers that due to persistent heavy precipitation and high winds, travelers can expect impacts on all highways throughout southwest Oregon. They advised against travel if possible, citing hazards such as landslides, flooding and downed trees.

While ODOT crews worked to reopen many roads, the storm's intensity led to ongoing challenges. ODOT urges travelers to check TripCheck.com for the latest road conditions.

In addition to the downed trees and debris on the roadways, The Chetco River crested its banks and nearly caused widespread flooding.

The weather conditions were indeed severe. Reports detailed moderate to heavy rain with thunderstorms, with rainfall totals reaching 9.55 inches. Winds were strong, with speeds reaching 37mph and gusts of 53.3mph. High humidity levels were also observed.

Amidst these challenging conditions, the efforts of individuals, like Harvey, provide a vital service to the community. Harvey can be contacted at 541-297-6571 or tilikumtrees@gmail.com.
