

Are you a creative, detail-oriented marketer with a passion for both print and digital media?

The Custer County Chief is looking for you.

This position is ideal for someone who thrives in a fast-paced, people-focused environment and believes in the power of local media.

As a Marketing Associate, you will play a key role in executing cohesive marketing campaigns across print and digital products.

Key responsibilities include:

- Develop and maintain relationships with local advertisers to sell marketing campaigns.
- Identify sales and audience growth opportunities through cold calling, events, and community outreach.
- Provide excellent customer service before and after the sale.
- Stay informed about publication content, readership trends, and competitor offerings.
- Maintain accurate records of sales and customer interactions.
