

THE CUSTER COUNTY CHIEF

HAS BEEN THE TRUSTED VOICE OF BROKEN BOW AND SURROUNDING COMMUNITIES FOR MORE THAN 120 YEARS.

As a local weekly newspaper, we cover the stories that matter most

We are looking for a community-focused News Editor who believes in local journalism. This is a leadership role in a small newsroom where initiative, and strong community relationships are key. The ideal candidate is comfortable wearing multiple hats including reporting, assigning and editing stories, taking photos, laying out pages for print and leading digital news efforts.

RESPONSIBILITIES INCLUDE:

- Planning and overseeing weekly print edition and daily online updates
- Writing, assigning and editing news and feature stories
- Covering local government, schools, and community events
- Managing contributors and community submissions
- Taking photos and assisting with page layout
- Maintaining strong relationships with local leaders, businesses, and residents
- Ensuring accuracy, fairness, and adherence to journalistic ethics
- Meeting weekly print deadlines

QUALIFICATIONS

- Journalism experience (editing experience preferred)
- Knowledge of AP style
- Excellent writing and editing skills
- Ability to work independently in a small-team environment
- Comfort covering public meetings and civic affairs
- Basic photography skills
- Digital publishing and social media experience a plus

This position includes competitive compensation along with other benefits including 401(k) Health/Vision/Dental insurance, paid vacation/personal and sick time.

If interested send resume to publisher@custercountychief.com