

Pennsylvania Judge Sentenced to Prison

EBENSBURG, Pa.—A judge was sentenced Wednesday in his former courtroom to two to five years in prison for bribery and corruption.

Cambria County Judge Joseph F. O'Kicki, 59, was stripped of his $80,000-per-year job and forfeits his state pension. Visiting Senior Judge Richard Grifo of Northampton County also imposed a $57,500 fine on O'Kicki.

Among other offenses, O'Kicki was convicted of bullying aides and clerks into chopping wood.

LA Times - 6-28-1990

Clipped By:

bruces

Tue, Sep 17, 2019