

Average high temperatures in July for two climate scenarios, RCP 4.5 and RCP 8.5. Corn-growing region of Wisconsin shown in green for the year 2020 in RCP 4.5. The RCP 4.5 scenario is based on greenhouse gas emission levels similar to the Paris Climate Accord while the RCP 8.5 scenario assumes increasing greenhouse gas emissions. Sources: Dr. Eric Compas, UW-Whitewater; Lawrence Livermore National Laboratory; USGS

