Denver Police Officers arrive at 20 S. Marion street at approximately 12:19 a.m. They are confronted with a male that is holding a knife and is bloody. The male, later identified as Matthew Madden, dob: 02/17/1985 was given commands to drop the knife but he refused. He was tased and once under control, transported to Denver Health Medical Center for treatment. Mr. Madden appeared to have lacerations to his neck, chest and arms. Once at the hospital, Mr. Madden was taken into surgery and said to be in critical condition.

Officers searched the home for possible victims and located two females in the backyard suffering from what appear to be multiple stab wounds. Both women were pronounced deceased at 12:30 a.m. by Dr. McVaney. Officers also located two children sleeping inside the house.

Detective Sisneros interviewed [REDACTED], the 911 caller. [REDACTED] confirmed the information that he provided to the dispatcher. In addition, he stated that he heard [REDACTED] yelling for about 20 seconds to a minute. He put on some shorts to go over to their house but then he could no longer hear [REDACTED]. He went to the other bedroom which is closer to Matt and [REDACTED] house and opened the window. He heard Matt crying and sobbing and thought he heard Matt say [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] stated that Matt and [REDACTED] moved into that house within this last year. He stated that Matt hasn't been living there and moved out sometime around July of this year. [REDACTED] described Matt as a bigger guy, 6', 200 pounds with facial hair. He stated that Matt is from South Africa and has a distinct accent. [REDACTED] stated that he knew it was Matt talking because of his accent. He also stated that Matt drives a PT Cruiser.

Detective Sisneros interviewed [REDACTED] the wife of [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] stated that she woke up to someone screaming and saying "get out". She believed this person to be [REDACTED], her neighbor [REDACTED]. She stated that she thought the screaming was coming from outside. She then heard Matt sobbing. She said she could tell it was Matt because of his South African accent. [REDACTED] stated that Matt and [REDACTED] moved into their house in Spring of 2021. She stated that Matt moved out around the beginning of summer. She stated that when she got home from work today around 3 or 3:30, Matt was at the house.

Based on the above stated information Detective Sisneros believes that probable cause exists for the charge of: (2) counts of 18-3-102 (1)(a), 1st Degree Murder, a class 1 Felony.
