Student of the Month

Noah Steward

6th Grader at Central DeWitt Intermediate School
Parents: Nicole and Brian Steward

Noah has been selected as Student of the Month for his consistent effort, thoughtful approach to learning, and positive influence in the classroom.

In English Language Arts, he approaches each lesson with focus and purpose, using what he learns to strengthen both his reading and writing skills.

"Noah listens thoughtfully during lessons and immediately applies new strategies — whether we're working on grammar, reading comprehension, or refining our writing. His ability to take feedback, use it purposefully, and continually improve is outstanding," Mrs. Reedy, his ELA teacher, said.

This commitment to learning sets Noah apart and allows him to grow steadily and confidently as a reader, writer, and thinker. He demonstrates strong independence, often applying new classroom concepts on his own, while consistently showcasing strong communication and critical thinking skills.

In addition to his academic strengths, Noah is a natural leader among his peers. He is known for his kindness and willingness to help others, frequently offering clear explanations and encouragement to classmates who need support. His positive attitude helps create a classroom environment where students feel comfortable asking questions and learning together.

Noah's dedication, initiative, and respectful approach to learning make him a deserving recipient of this recognition. He exemplifies what it means to be a SABER, and his positive contributions make a meaningful difference in the school community.
