"This is my third year of having a grave blanket made for my late husband. How comforting it is to have adorned on his grave. Grave blankets present an image of warmth in the cold, bitter weather. A great holiday gift!"

— Kathy Ketelsen, DeWitt

"Since 2005, Bill Andresen has made a grave blanket for my mother's grave. Instead of a blanket it should be called a Christmas tree. It is beautifully decorated with ornaments, pine cones, holly and red twig dogwood. He uses a variety of evergreen branches topped off with a big bow in the center. It makes me proud to have such a gorgeous piece for my mother and this year it will be shared with my father as well."

—Susie Hill, Pekin, IL
