NEED A BREAK FROM TURKEY & YOUR WEIRD UNCLE?

Take a quick spin south to Art Hive, Staunton's creative reuse and art center. We are kicking off the season with The $20 Club, an all-media group show where every single piece of original, local art on the walls is priced at $20 or under. Cross a few names off your gift list with unique, handmade works, then dig through our bins of rescued craft materials and vintage oddities to find a little something for yourself.
