

Discover 1200+ acres of breathtaking landscapes and immersive experiences at the McFadden Nature Center in Southwest Georgia.

More than just a destination, we are a growing hub for environmental education, outdoor adventure, and a deep appreciation for the natural world. Nestled along the scenic Chattahoochee River, our center invites you to connect with nature in meaningful ways.

Trails open
Tuesday-Sunday
8am to 7pm EST
